FOREWORD

I am delighted to welcome you all to the new directory of CMI St. Thomas Province, Kozhikode. It was more gratifying than learning to bring out the new edition of our directory. Directory is a signpost which can be used to find our way to great relations and treasures.

Sincere attempt has been made to make this directory more user-friendly. Information has been compiled in an easy to use manner so that the directory will be a handy quick reference guide for the readers.

I thank all the fathers and brothers for their help in producing this valuable reference book. Let us look forward to work together in all areas of our apostolate. Despite the hardships that pull us back for a moment, I believe we have much to be confident about as we seek all the opportunities to drive our religious life forward to be the vital living force in the world, living and proclaiming the Word of God.
